

DAY IN DAVENPORT

Mob Spirit Rampant.—The revival meeting of L. G. Hayes, Thirteenth and Iowa street, was almost broken up Tuesday night when a crowd of men and boys nearly 100 strong bombarded the assembly with all manner of missiles and otherwise interfering with the services by hooting derisively. Mr. Hayes notified the police of the affair yesterday morning and requested Chief Schramm for protection. The chief has promised to see that the affair does not occur again and has instructed the police to protect Mr. Hayes and his sect from the intolerant abuses of the mob.

Rob Confectionery.—Keating's confectionery stand, Lombard and Marquette streets, was entered by thieves Tuesday night and half a dozen boxes of cigars and several boxes of chewing tobacco taken. The thieves entered through a window through which they entered the place. The robbery was reported to the Davenport police yesterday morning. There is no clue to the identity of the perpetrators.

File Damage Suit.—The American Insurance company, assignee, filed yesterday by its attorney, H. H. Johnson, suit for $200 against the D. R. I. & N. W. Ry. Co., alleging damages sustained when sparks from a railroad engine set fire to the barn of John Ingram in Bettendorf some time ago.

Exhibits Coming.—The state convention of Ad Men here in October will bring many important exhibits, among these to be one from the International Art service of Berlin, Germany; one from Colliers magazine; the Posters Advertising agency; Signs of the Times and Advertising and Selling, the latter both advertising magazines. Franciscan posters calling attention to the local convention will be posted all over the state.

Teachers in Session.—The Scott County Teachers' Institute is in session at the Davenport high school auditorium this week with Superintendent Henry Ronge in charge. There is a good attendance at the daily sessions and many topics of interest to the county teachers are being discussed.

Suit on Corn Delay.—A suit for $1,167.76, alleged damages when 11 cars of corn were delayed in transit from Johnson county to Chicago, was filed today in the Johnson county district court for Thomas Fay, plaintiff. Fay claims that the corn was to have been shipped to Chicago immediately after it was shelled in Davenport and that it was delayed in transit. The market dropped and the plaintiff claims damages against the railroad.

Testing Serum.—Over 50 farmers, interested in hog cholera, attended the first of the cholera campaign meetings held at Eldridge Tuesday, when an exhaustive analysis of the cholera situation in Scott county, the nature of the disease and methods of combating it, were given by G. R. Bliss, county agriculturalist. Last night the second meeting was held in Castle hall at Walcott. John Hansen presided at the meeting which went on record unanimously as endorsing the county crop league. Recent results in the serum treatment as a means of stopping cholera are seen on the Grant farm near Long Grove, where 78 animals were treated and but seven lost. The animals were very sick at the time they were given the serum. On the Fritz Meiner farm near Eldridge 33 were given serum and but one died. All but four have now completely recovered.

Postoffice Automobile.—If the automobile service at the local postoffice is made permanent, it is probable that the automobiles for use in the service will be purchased by the United States government, instead of awarding the contract for the collection and delivery of mail to automobile or garage firms. No definite word has been received by Postmaster S. A. Finger on the subject.

Pabst Party En Route to Coast.—A party of eight, including some of the chief owners of the Pabst Brewing company of Milwaukee stopped in Davenport Tuesday, on the way to the Pacific coast, where they are going in two large touring cars.

Divorce Suit Filed.—Suit for divorce was filed yesterday by Emma Steinhauser against William C. Steinhauser. Cruelty and non-support are the allegations set forth in the plaintiff's petition. She asks for $50 a month temporary alimony. The Steinhausers were married in Davenport Nov. 26, 1902, and lived together until August, 1913.

Appointed Field Secretary.—M. T. Kennedy of Davenport has been appointed field secretary of the Iowa State Automobile association, and has started in his work of organizing new clubs in various cities in the state. He will cover the entire state.

Hsa Chautauqua Engagements.—Secretary Mott R. Sawyers of the Y. M. C. A. left yesterday for Elmhurst, Mo., where he will open a three weeks' chautauqua engagement for the Ralston Lecture bureau. During the remainder of August and the first week in September Mr. Sawyers will speak in a dozen different cities in Missouri and other Mississippi valley states.

Police News.—Arba Handy, charged with wife desertion, after a conference with his spouse and the county attorney yesterday was released on his promise to support his wife and child in the future.

Charged with being a fugitive from justice and wanted in Bettendorf for fighting, John Doyle was placed under arrest yesterday by City Detective Phelan and turned over to Marshal Swingle of Bettendorf.

A 15 days' sentence was suspended over Eugene Boyle, who was convicted in police court yesterday on a charge of intoxication. Boyle promised to lead the straight and narrow path in the future.

Owls Have Housewarming.—The first business and social meeting of the local chapter of Owls in their new quarters was held Tuesday night at what was formerly Lehman's hall. All members of the Davenport Nest No. 52, were present. John A. Kenderdine of Iowa City, National lecturer for the Owls, delivered the address of the evening. Following the business meeting, a social session was held, at which refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held Sept. 2.

GIRLS IMMORAL? PARENTS BLAMED

Wisconsin Commission Hears Official Relate Vice Growth in That State.

Madison, Wis., Aug. 21.—Blame for immorality among young girls of Wisconsin was placed principally on their parents by Dr. C. A. Harper, secretary of the state board of health, in testifying before the special legislative vice committee at its first session here yesterday.

"Lack of surveillance by chaperons, social ambitions of parents, late hours, suggestive dances, immodest dresses, automobile rides, telephones, stimulating food and drink, and organizations of boys to ostracize girls from society who refuse to submit to their will are some of the principal causes of the social evil among the better classes of citizens of Wisconsin," said Dr. Harper.

Remedies suggested by him were stricter watch by parents, less suggestive clothes, wholesome food, early re-

ENGLAND NOT EXCITED OVER WILSON INCIDENT, BUT PAGE CONVEYS REGRET

London, Aug. 21.—Early this week Ambassador Walter H. Page called at the foreign office and expressed to Sir Edward Grey, the English foreign minister, the regret of the American government that Ambassador Henry L. Wilson should have made statements reflecting upon the British foreign office. Ambassador Wilson said that a statement emanating from Grey to the effect that Great Britain recognized Huerta because the ambassador's course had led him to believe the United States would do likewise, was "a pure subterfuge, unworthy of the British foreign office."

Evidently the statement of Ambassador Wilson created a greater flurry in Washington than it did in London. The incident would have been overlooked here had it not been for the action of Secretary Bryan in instructing Ambassador Page to call on Grey with American regrets.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

Severe Case of a Philadelphia Woman—Her Symptoms.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I had a severe case of nervous prostration, with palpitation of the heart, constipation, headaches, dizziness, noise in my ears, timid, nervous, restless feelings and sleeplessness."

"I read in the paper where a young woman had been cured of the same troubles by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I threw away the medicines the doctor left me and began taking the Compound. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to sit up and in a short time I was able to do all my work. Your medicine has proved all my work. I was so weak I could hardly stand long enough to do my dishes."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me well and happy and I have begun to gain in weight and my face looks healthy now."—Mrs. J. W. HORNBERGER, R. No. 3, Ephrata, Pa.

Another Bad Case. Ephrata, Pa.—"About a year ago I was down with nervous prostration. I was pale and weak and would have hysterical spells, sick headaches and a bad pain under my shoulder-blade. I was under the care of different doctors but did not improve. I was so weak I could hardly stand long enough to do my dishes."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me well and happy and I have begun to gain in weight and my face looks healthy now."—Mrs. J. W. HORNBERGER, R. No. 3, Ephrata, Pa.

tiring hours, and elimination of the automobile and telephone from the use of the young women.

"It is generally recognized," said Dr. Harper, "that there is a general wave of immorality passing over the country. It is due partly to our standards of living and a desecration of the moral sensibilities. We are living too high, going too fast, and disregarding the balances which make for moderation and moral uplift."

Dr. Harper said that the reports filed in his office by health officers of cities, villages, and towns showed that the number of illegitimate births was growing at an alarming rate in this state. The larger proportion of them were among the middle and lower classes, he said, but his experience made him believe that immorality prevailed to as great an extent among the higher classes, which, fearing publicity, could more successfully cover it up.

"Take the situation among the students in the Madison high school a year ago," he said, "when the community was astounded to find that 20 girls of respectable parents were guilty of indiscretions. It was charged that a coterie of boys in the school had banded together and ostracized from the social life of the school virtuous girls who would not submit to their demands."

"What remedy can you suggest for the suppression of immorality?" asked Chairman Howard Teasdale. "I have found that communities having segregated vice districts under strict regulation have the highest degree of morality," replied Dr. Harper.

"Doesn't a recognized vice district require the abasement of a certain per cent of women every year?" asked Senator Victor Linley of Superior. "That is true," Dr. Harper replied, "but at least 1 per cent of the girls will go wrong anyhow, it seems."

"An ounce of Prevention is worth a pound of cure."
